TU to Celebrate 27th Annual International Flag Ceremony November 14, 11:00 a.m. – Marion Center

TIFFIN UNIVERSITY, Tiffin, OH—TU Provost and Chief Academic Officer Peter Holbrook will welcome new and returning international students during Tiffin University's 27th International Flag Ceremony on Wednesday, November 14, at 11:00 a.m. in the Marion Center. The flag ceremony is the largest event celebrating International Education Week (IEW). The public is invited.

To date, Tiffin University is home to over 300 international students representing 28 countries. This year's new countries are Bolivia, Peru, and New Zealand.

"The International Flag Ceremony is one of the longest running events on our campus," said Scott Saracusa, TU's Executive Director of International Affairs. "It provides the campus community and residents of Tiffin a platform to celebrate the diversity of our student body and the opportunity to continue to learn about other cultures."

Reservations for this event are not required. For more information contact Scott Saracusa by email: SaracusaSW@tiffin.edu.
