TU Hosts Executive Leadership Workshop Building Blocks for Organizational Success

TIFFIN UNIVERSITY, Tiffin, OH— Tiffin University will host an executive leadership workshop, “Building Blocks for Organizational Success,” presented by Dr. James J. Kennedy, CPCU on January 31, 2019, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Marion Center. The workshop, sponsored by the Hylant Group, will cover several modules related to organizational culture and strategy including purpose, mission, vision, values and leadership; strategy, planning, ethical behaviors, and decision-making.

Dr. James J. Kennedy is a retired Ohio Mutual Insurance Group President and CEO. His seminar will cover several models related to organizational culture and strategy including purpose, mission/vision/values, and leadership, strategy, planning, ethics, and decision making.

Dr. Kennedy’s practical ways can optimize an organization’s success. Middle, upper level, or executive leaders can learn more about intentional leadership and change efforts that sustain organizational efficiency, agility, and innovative results. This seminar will also help leaders expand their understanding and appreciation for employee relationships and opportunities.

The cost for the seminar is $500. Group rate discounts are offered: 10 percent discount for three or more from the same organization, and 20 percent discount for five or more from the same organization.

For reservations or group rate information, contact Kristi Krintzline at 419-448-3445 or KrintzlineKA@tiffin.edu. The reservation deadline is Friday, January 11, 2019.
